

Georgia Heritage Federal Credit Union Remote Check Deposit Terms and Conditions:

These terms (Remote Check Deposit Terms) will govern your use of Credit Union Remote Check Deposit (Remote Check Deposit), and are incorporated by reference in and made a part of your Agreement if you use Remote Check Deposit. You may not use the Credit Union's Remote Check Deposit to make contributions to your IRA.

What is Remote Check Deposit? Remote Check Deposit allows you to make deposits to your Credit Union deposit account remotely by transmitting images of checks to us in compliance with our requirements. If we accept the image for collection, we will then attempt to collect the item by presenting the image or converting the image to a substitute check. Unlike traditional check deposits, you retain the original paper check when you use Remote Check Deposit. The manner in which these substitute checks or images are cleared, presented for payment, and collected will be determined by us in our sole discretion. We may change, modify, add or remove all or portions from Remote Check Deposit at any time, with or without notice to you.

Eligibility. We will determine whether you are eligible for Remote Check Deposit in our sole discretion. We may suspend or terminate your use of Remote Check Deposit at any time and without prior notice to you. If you violate the terms of Remote Check Deposit, then we also may use such actions as a basis to terminate your account relationship with us.

Remote Check Deposit Fees. In addition to these warranties, you covenant that you will comply with Remote Check Deposit Terms, this Agreement and applicable law.

Indemnification. In addition to the other indemnification provisions set forth in this Agreement, you agree to indemnify, defend and hold us harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, damages, liabilities, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) or other loss that arises from or relates to your use of Remote Check Deposit or your breach of the representations, warranties or covenants set forth in these Remote Check Deposit Terms, including without limitation your attempt to duplicate the presentation of a check image via presentation of the original check or an image or substitute check derived from the original check and any liability that we may incur for processing an image or substitute check rather than the original paper check.

Endorsement. For any check deposited as an image through Remote Check Deposit, you must endorse the check as "[signature] For Credit Union Remote Check Deposit only [account #]" or as otherwise instructed by us before you capture the check image. Checks received that are not endorsed in accordance with this provision may be rejected.

Receipt of Check Image. We are not responsible for check images we do not receive or that are dropped during transmission. A check image will be deemed received by us only when we provide an online confirmation receipt to you that we have received your check image. When we confirm receipt of your check image, the image will still be subject to review before we submit it for collection and may still be rejected for any reason in our sole discretion. A confirmation is not a representation, warranty or other indication that the check image will be presented for collection or will be honored by any collecting or paying bank. If we reject a check image received through Remote Check Deposit, then you may submit the original check by mail to us for processing unless we instruct you otherwise, or you may want to contact the drawer and have them reissue the check. If you do submit the original check for processing, we reserve the right to refuse to process it and may instead require you to have the check reissued.

Retention of Original Check. Once your check image has been credited to your account, you must mark the original check as "VOID" and retain the check for sixty (60) days. You may not present the original check or any image or substitute check created from the original check for payment at any other financial institution. During this 60-day period, you must store the original paper check securely using precautions at least as secure as those you would use to protect a blank check and you must make the original paper check available to us for review at any time and as necessary for us to facilitate the clearing and collection process, to address third party claims, or for our own audit purposes. Should you fail to produce the original paper check, you authorize us to deduct the amount of the check in question from your account, regardless of whether such action may cause your account to not have sufficient funds, and to pay any associated fees. Immediately after this 60-day period, you must destroy the original paper check.

Return Items. You understand that we may convert items you deposit through Remote Check Deposit into substitute checks, images, or ACH entries. As a result, in the event that your item is returned unpaid, you will only receive a copy of the substitute check or image, or in the case of ACH entries, the Automated Clearinghouse information.

Funds Availability. We generally apply the Funds Availability Schedule set forth in the Funds Availability Policy and Disclosure section of the Credit Union's Membership and Account Agreement or Regulation CC of the Federal Reserve Board to check images received through Remote Check Deposit as if we had received the original paper check. However, in addition to the exceptions specified in Funds Availability Disclosure, we may delay availability of funds from any deposit you make through Remote Check Deposit at any time in our sole discretion, including due to any concern we may have regarding our ability to collect based upon any check image that you present.
